Submitting an abstract often raises practical and procedural questions, especially for authors preparing their work for the first time or working with guidelines. This FAQ brings together the points that most commonly arise and offers clear guidance to support you throughout the submission process.

The most relevant questions are listed below.

1. Until when can I submit my abstract?
   Friday, April 24, 2026, 23:59 CEST

2. When will I get notified whether my abstract has been accepted?
   Notifications will be sent out in mid of July 2026.

3. Do I need to register as an abstract presenter?
   Yes, the abstract presenter must register for UEG Week.
   If your abstract is accepted as an Oral Presentation or a Moderated Poster Presentation, you must register and attend the congress in-person. If your abstract is accepted as a Poster, you can register and attend the congress virtually or in-person.

4. How much does it cost to submit an abstract?
   Submitting an abstract for UEG Week is completely free of charge.

5. Can I present my abstract virtually?
   Your abstract can be presented virtually if you have an accepted poster. Oral or Moderated Presentations require an in-person presentation and registration.

6. Can I edit an already submitted abstract?
   Yes, simply log in to the abstract submission system and edit your submission. After editing your submission, you must submit your abstract again. Please note that edits are only possible until the Abstract Submission deadline of April 24, 2026.

7. Who can present the abstract?
   The presenter must be a listed author of the abstract and must be registered for UEG Week. An industry representative can also present the abstract, as long as all affiliations are stated accordingly.

8. Can the presenting author be changed after the submission?
   Yes, the presenting author can be changed in the abstract confirmation system until July 22, 2026. Please send an email to uegweek.abstract@abstractserver.com to change the presenting author after this deadline.

United European Gastroenterology Week
October 17 – 20, 2026 | Fira de Barcelona & Online

9. Where can I upload my presentation/poster?
   For Oral presentations, presentation slides are to be uploaded online or onsite at the Speaker Centre at least 3 hours before your presentation. For Poster, please upload your poster via the poster upload tool by October 2, 2026. The link to upload your poster will be sent to you in due time.

10. Is the use of the presentation/poster template mandatory?
    Using the UEG template is not mandatory, although we recommend using it to help participants navigate through the different presentations and posters. For Oral Presentations, it is mandatory to use the COI slide as your second slide. Industry slide templates containing logos are not allowed. Industry logos are only permitted on the last slide of your presentation. For Posters, a COI statement must be included.

11. Where does my accepted abstract get published?
    Abstracts are published in the UEG Abstract Book 2026 and on the congress platform, while Clinical Cases appear on the congress platform only; once the platform closes (approximately one month after the event), abstracts and Clinical Cases will be available on Gutflix.

12. Does UEG offer any grants?
    Yes! Every abstract presenter under the age of 40 is eligible to apply for a Travel Grant. Applicants must be a UEG Young Associate and must apply when submitting the abstract in the Abstract Submission System. More information here.

For full instructions, please refer to abstract submission guidelines, Abstract Submission | UEG - United European Gastroenterology, or contact UEG Headquarters Management with any additional queries.